

كلية الدراسات المصرفية والمالية
College of Banking and Financial Studies

Preparatory Training for Sustainability and Climate Risk Certificate (SCR)

---

Course Outline

The Preparatory Training for Sustainability and Climate Risk program trains finance experts in handling sustainability and climate-related risks. It covers ESG factors, climate risk analysis, and integrating sustainability into risk management strategies. The program aims to improve professionals' ability to incorporate these risks into financial decision-making.

Course Outline:

- Foundations of Climate Change
- Sustainability
- Climate Change Risk
- Sustainability and Climate Policy, Culture, & Governance
- Green and Sustainable Finance: Markets & Instruments
- Climate Risk Measurement and Management
- Climate Models and Scenario Analysis
- Net Zero
- Climate and Nature Risk Assessment
- Transition Planning and Carbon Reporting

Program Duration

January 7–8, 14–15 /February 3–4, 10–11, 17, 26.

Total Training Hours

60 hours, 6 hours per day

Delivery Style

Virtual Delivery from Bahrain, via MyClass

Assessment

The SCR Exam is a comprehensive assessment covering climate risk guidelines and methodologies. It includes 90 multiple-choice questions, including case studies, that require both analytical thinking and practical application. Candidates are allotted four hours to complete their Exam. Offered in American English, the Exam is in-person at Pearson VUE test centers worldwide, available in April and October. Scheduling requires a 48-hour minimum, on a first-come, first-served basis.

Certificate

Candidate will only receive the certificate from GARP upon successfully passing the final Exam. The minimum passing score is : 60%

Program Language

Program Delivery and BIBF Material will be in English

Trainer Profile

Nadia Alqassab

---

Senior Lecturer at the Banking and Finance Center at BIBF

She is a Professional Risk Manager (PRM) and MBA in Business Administration Certified from Strathclyde University. Worked as AVP Market Risk Senior Manager at Gulf International Bank (GIB) and Head of Market and Middle office Desk at Bank of Bahrain and Kuwait (BBK).

Chosen in 2009 as an Executive Trainee, with a fast Track career in BBK, reselected in 2020 part of the Ashridge leadership program, which was the first leadership program for senior managers developed in BBK, also selected as part of the first mentorship program initiated by BBK. She is also part of PRMIA Mentorship program worldwide and withholds 15 years of Risk Management experience.

Additionally, she also worked as a part time lecturer with Ernest and Young and holds more than 300 hours of training.

She has expert knowledge in risk related issues, and precisely market risk and ESG Risk.